

RECOMMENDED TOUCH FOOTBALL AUSTRALIA LIGHTING REQUIREMENTS

Level of Play	Typical Activity Title	Examples	Maintained average horizontal illuminance (lux)
Recreational	Unstructured informal games fitness related played at low pace	Come n Try activities Junior or Youth competitions	50 lux
Training or Club Based Games	Training activities and internal club-based game play with limited competitive pace	Fitness and skill development tasks	50 lux
Community Competitions	Competitive games with results for each match recorded and structured competition	Affiliate competitions ranging in standard from sub-elite to extremely social at a recreational or amateur level for adults	50 to 100 lux
Regional Based Competitions or Events	Inter-town or the first level of representative competition that is fast paced and at the beginning of elite level competition	A high-level competition for Junior, Youth and Adult competitions	100 lux
State Based Competitions or Events	Elite level competition on a state level with state championships or winners the outcome	A high-level competition progressing to a semi-professional structure for athletes of all ages and officials	100 lux – 200 lux The higher the lux the more suitable the venue is judged to hold these events
National Based Competition or Events	Elite level competition on a national level with national championships or winners the outcome that may require television standard lighting	An elite-level competition progressing to a semi-professional structure for athletes and officials	100 lux – 200 lux The higher the lux the more suitable the venue is judged to hold these events
International Based Competition or Events	Highest level competition that may require television standard lighting	An elite-level competition progressing to a professional structure	200 lux – 500 lux The higher the lux the more suitable the venue is judged to hold these events

