Message from Tourism and Sport Minister, Stirling Hinchliffe

The sixth annual Bundaberg Cup is one of Australia's richest touch football knockouts with $20,000 in prize money.

Open to under 12 girls and boys through to open mixed and men's competitions, the Bundy Cup is proudly supported by the Palaszczuk Government and the It's Live! in Queensland events calendar.

Whether you're an elite competitor, a social player wanting to get back on the field, or a spectator, the Bundaberg Cup is also a fantastic opportunity to explore the city famous for its rum and sugar, as well as the Southern Great Barrier Reef. Not only is the Bundaberg Cup a great celebration of sport, it's also an important event for local businesses who benefit from the region's growing tourism economy.

Good luck to the teams competing in this year's knockout and enjoy your stay in the Southern Great Barrier Reef region.

THE MAYOR

Jack Dempsey

Welcome to the beautiful Bundaberg Region!

It's a pleasure to host you for the Bundaberg Cup for an action-packed weekend.

This event started in 2015 and it has been wonderful to watch it develop into the major event it is today.

This year we have 64 teams registered with about 850 players competing and 70 officials.

It's wonderful to see a social sporting event drawing so much attention from throughout the state, with a focus on fun and inclusivity.

This event continues to support our local economy, drawing many visitors to the region for the weekend.

The Bundaberg Region has a diverse range of attractions from heritage communities in our hinterland, pristine beaches and the vibrant Bundaberg city.

As the food bowl of Australia, we're now starting to realise our potential as a gourmet food and beverage destination.

I wish everyone success on the field and encourage visitors to explore as much of our beautiful region as you can.

Just like the turtles, keep coming back.

Bundaberg Region Mayor Jack Dempsey
