

COLLECTION STATEMENT

1. Introduction

In this Collection Statement "we", "us" and "our" and "TFA" means Touch Football Australia Limited and each of its Affiliates, associates, related entities and subsidiaries and the States. Please read this Collection Statement and our related Privacy Policy (available at www.touchfootball.com.au) carefully as it describes the way in which we will collect, hold, use and disclose your Personal Information. Capitalised terms in this Collection Statement have the meaning given to such terms in our Privacy Policy.

Please be aware that you are under no obligation to provide us with your Personal Information and you may request we delete any Personal Information we hold about you at any time. We also use certain third parties, to act as our agent in our collection of your Personal Information. These third parties may use their employees, agents or contractors (or those of its related entities) to do so. These third parties aggregate your Personal Information and provide us with a copy. We will not engage these third parties unless it has first taken steps reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the Personal Information it collects on our behalf is collected and handled only for the purposes we require.

In addition to collecting your Personal Information on our behalf, these third parties may also from time to time seek to collect, hold, use and disclose your Personal Information as a principal for their own business purposes. Where they propose to do so, please note that such third party uses will be governed not by the terms of our Privacy Policy but by the terms of the applicable third party privacy policy which those third parties should make available to you before collecting any Personal Information from you (for example, when you are purchasing tickets to a Match). You should ensure you are given access to and understand the terms applicable to the relationship that exists between you and those third parties in relation to their separate uses of your Personal Information.

We may also collect Personal Information about you from our Touch Football Partners as part of our relationship with a Touch Football Partner.

2. Purpose of collection

The primary purpose for which we collect your Personal Information is to administer and conduct the game of Touch Football and other related activities across Australia, provide you with information about us, our upcoming events and the products and services we provide, provide you with member services, comply with legal obligations or otherwise in accordance with the TFA Privacy Policy. We may also use or disclose your Personal Information for the following related secondary purposes (without limitation):

- as part of the best practice preference centre and/or data storage architecture administered by TFA and operated in conjunction with the Affiliates, the States and selected third parties;
- for internal purposes including management reporting, trend analysis and servicing of you and your membership and/or other relationships with us;
- to assist us with research and product development to improve your experience;
- to provide you with news, offers and other information about the broader game of Touch Football (including participation grassroots and social forms of the game);
- to provide our Touch Football Partners with certain non-Personal Information to assist in our work with them.; and
- we may also use your Personal Information to evaluate and service our relationships with our Touch Football Partners, including to tailor your experience interacting with our Touch Football Partners.

3. Consequences of your refusal to provide personal information

The main consequence if you do not provide us or our agents with your Personal Information is that we will not be able to provide you with information about us, our upcoming events and the products and services we provide, including things such as discount offers (including from our partners), ticketing and exciting initiatives we are undertaking. In some instances, it may even mean you are not able to access the TFA Network (or parts of it).

4. Disclosure to third parties

We may disclose your Personal Information to our service providers for the purposes set out in this Collection Statement, such as information services providers, information technology providers and other similar third party organisations.

Unless you inform TFA otherwise, we will disclose your Personal Information to Affiliates, the States and other third parties such as Touch Football Partners, including as part of the Touch Football Exchange, to enable such recipients to provide you with information, materials and promotional opportunities. The Touch Football Exchange allows us to more effectively coordinate promotional and information sharing activities.

The type of Personal Information we may disclose to those third parties includes your name, date of birth, address, phone number, email address, favourite players and teams and all other information that we, through our agents, collect from you in the course of purchasing membership, ticketing and/or other products and services from us. Other than overseas recipients (see section 5), we ensure that any organisation to which we disclose your Personal Information implements appropriate information security safeguards and protections in accordance with applicable privacy laws (including the Privacy Act). In certain circumstances, we may disclose your Personal Information if and when required to do so by law, for example, to assist law enforcement agencies with their inquiries.

TFA will provide you with a variety of ways to access, review and manage your Personal Information. For example, you can opt out of and otherwise manage your communications preferences via links in emails and other communications we send to you from time to time.

5. Transborder data flows

We may disclose your Personal Information to overseas recipients for things such as processing membership and hosting services. The most likely destinations for such activities are China, the United States and New Zealand, although countries where such recipients are located may vary. By accepting this Collection Statement and providing TFA with your Personal Information, you are providing express consent for TFA to disclose your Personal Information overseas. You are aware that by providing such consent, TFA will cease to be accountable for the overseas recipient's handling of your Personal Information under applicable privacy laws (including the Privacy Act) and that you will not be able to seek redress from TFA under applicable privacy laws (including the Privacy Act) in relation to that use of your Personal Information overseas.

6. Corrections, Complaints and Contact details

The TFA Privacy Policy contains information about how you may access and request correction of your personal information held by TFA or make a complaint about the handling of your Personal Information, and provides information about how a complaint will be dealt with by TFA.

If you have any questions or comments in relation to our Collection Statement, or if you wish to correct or access your Personal Information held by TFA or make a complaint, please contact:

The Privacy Officer

Suite 1

18 Napier Close

Deakin ACT, Australia 2600

+612 9359 8500

TFAprivacyofficer@touchfootball.com.au

This Collection Statement was last updated in April 2021

